This contract constitutes insurance to cover accidents and injuries linked to the performance:

- a) within the skiing area, of the following amateur activities on snow: skiing, in its various types, snowboarding, cross country skiing, sleighing and sledging;
- b) outside winter season, of the following amateur activities: bike and mountain bike

The insurance cover is provided up to the amount of the respective insured maximum ceilings and with the reimbursement limits indicated therein for each Service

Art. 2 – Insurable and insured persons

This insurance is provided, in favour of the Insured persons identified by the Member at the time of purchasing the ski pass, in relation to each of which the respective insurance premium has been calculated and paid.

Art. 3 – Territorial Validity

The Insurance is valid for all ski slopes that can be accessed with the ski pass in use at the time of the Incident.

Art. 4 – Temporal Validity

The entire day or days for which the Insured has purchased the policy, coinciding with the duration of the ski pass with which the policy is combined.

Art. 5 – Validity of Insurance

The insurance is valid only and exclusively in the case of a request for intervention, in the location of occurrence of the incident, of the Slope Rescue Service; the Insured must report to the Slope Rescue Service that they are covered by insurance, showing that they are in possession of a regular ski pass, proving the right to use the skiing area in which they are located, as well as all documents that are required to make the necessary checks. The Slope Rescue Service will check, at the time of the intervention, if the person involved in the incident and/or injury is in possession of the insurance, the name of the Insured and the identity of the same. Where the ski pass has not been purchased at the same time, the insurance is valid only if purchased before the daily commencement of the activity subject to the contract.

Art. 6 - Services

The insured services, with the respective reimbursement limits, limitations and exclusions, are defined in the "Services" section below.

All warranties are provided at second risk with respect to what is covered by other insurance policies in force or entered into by the Insured or by the Policyholder, and the indemnities are liquidated net of any other indemnities due from other policies in force and/or from corporate insurance and/or mandatory insurance. Unless otherwise established, maximum ceilings, deductibles and excesses are applied per claim/event.

Art. 7 - Conditions relating to state of health valid for all sections of the policy

The policy contains some contractual clauses that refer the insured cover (or exclusion) to the state of health of the Insured. In particular, it is established and agreed that the cover is not provided for medical problems that the Insured had prior to the commencement of the warranty. In that regard, please refer to Article 10 - Exclusions valid for all policy sections.

Art. 8 - Deductibles

The individual policy sections may provide the liquidation of the claim subject to the application of a deductible for the Insured, the amount of which is determined in accordance with the provisions of the respective sections.

Art. 9 – Exclusion of dangerous activities

In any case the following activities are excluded from the insurance cover:

adventure races, biathlons, descent with bobsleigh / skeleton, climbing / trekking / hiking on foot above 4,000 metres, heli-skiing, ice hockey, ice speedway, mountaineering / rock climbing, paragliding, acrobatic skiing, ski-doo snowmobiles, trampolining with skis, skiing competitions, Acrobatic/hurdles BMX, cyclocross, triathlon.

Art. 10 – Exclusions valid for all policy sections

Accidents and injuries caused or occurring as a result of or on the occasion of the following are always excluded from all warranties:

- a. Any event happened outside the skiing area, as defined in the "Definitions" chapter
- b. Intentional acts, wilful misconduct or gross negligence of the Insured and/or the Policyholder and/or the persons for which they are liable in accordance with the law, or from intentional non-compliance with official rules
- c. involvement of the Insured in any malicious, illicit or criminal act, along with participation in theft, robbery or other crimes
- d. suicide or attempted suicide of the Insured and respective consequences, or acts of self-harming or intentional exposure to danger (except in the attempt to save human lives)
- e. any other damage connected to the reported event and not covered by this insurance
- f. civil or foreign war, invasion, insurrection, revolution, martial law, use of military power or usurpation of government or military power, strikes, uprisings of any nature, civil commotion, effects deriving from a source of radioactivity, epidemics, pollution
- g. tornadoes, hurricanes, earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, floods, storms, landslides, avalanches, tsunamis, landslides, natural catastrophes, weather events
- h. exposure or contamination due to nuclear, chemical or biological substances, irrespective of the causes that contributed to it
- i. taking of drugs, narcotics or similar and medicinal substances not prescribed by an authorised medical authority and the respective consequences
- j. inebriated state of the Insured, characterised by the presence in the blood of a BAC equal to or above that fixed by the law that regulates driving in the country in which the Insured is located at the time of the incident
- k. use or possession of weapons, including hunting and war weapons
- l. any accidental act that makes it impossible to use this insurance, including prohibitions decided by the local, national or international authorities
- m. ski-mountaineering or outside the equipped skiing areas
- n. participation in sports competitions in any guise (even amateur) including preliminary competitions, officially organised exercises or training in view of those events
- o. transportation on ski lifts, including the phase of embarking and disembarking from the same
- p. use of ski passes against the regulation

With particular reference to the Civil Liability warranties, the following are also expressly excluded:

- q. all damages that are not material
- r. all indirect damages
- s. all damages caused to members of the same group who were performing the activity covered by the insurance together with the beneficiary, except in the case where all members of the group were covered by insurance
- t. all damages deriving from the ownership, possession, use or driving of motor vehicles
- u. Claims for which the Beneficiary has made settlements of any nature with the injured party without the prior approval of the Company, therein including the recognition of partial or total liability
- v. Claims for which the beneficiary has not sent to the company the "Reconstruction of the dynamics of the incident" form completed in full or signed
- w. all damages caused to structures, equipment, fixed and/or mobile systems of the Policyholder.

Note:

Sanction exclusion: The Insurer shall not be deemed to provide cover and the Insurer shall not be liable to pay any claim or provide any benefit hereunder to the extent that the provision of such cover, payment of such claim or provision of such benefit would expose the Insurer, its parent company or its ultimate controlling entity to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the European Union or the United States of America.

Territorial exclusion: This policy will not cover any loss, damage or legal liability arising directly or indirectly from planned or actual travel in, to, or through (Cuba), Iran, North Korea, Syria, Sudan, or the Crimea region.

The Insurance Company is not required to provide cover or to indemnify any claim for compensation or to pay anything by virtue of this contract where it, its parent company or its group head, in doing this, incurs the payment of any sanction, prohibition or restriction provided by resolutions of the United Nations or economic or commercial sanctions, in accordance with the laws and regulations of the European Union or the United States of America.

This policy does not provide any type of cover or compensation for terrorists or members of terrorist organisations, drug traffickers, nuclear, chemical or biological arms suppliers, in the event of accident, loss, illness, injury or personal liability for directly or indirectly incurred costs;

SERVICES

SECTION A – COSTS OF RESCUE ON THE SLOPES, MEDICAL COSTS OF FIRST AID

Nature of the Services and warranties

A.1 Costs of rescue on slopes with toboggan

When, as a result of an accident and/or injury to the Insured on ski slopes, a rescue intervention takes place on the slopes by way of toboggan, up to the maximum ceiling indicated in Annex 1 – Table of Warranties, the ordinary costs of rescue by toboggan on the slopes if this was organised and performed by a Slope Rescue Service (or a civil or military rescue service, or by a public or private organisation duly authorised to perform services in the location of the Incident).

The warranty operates only for slopes where the ski pass in possession of the Insured is valid for the day or days on which they purchased the policy.

A.2 Medical first aid costs

As a result of an accident and/or injury to the Insured for which a rescue on the slopes intervention was performed, ALIG bears, within the limits of the maximum ceiling indicated in Annex 1 - Table of Warranties, the medical costs of first aid incurred by the Insured in the immediacy of the incident.

The warranty only operates if the Insured is rescued in the location of the incident, by the Slope Rescue Service (or a civil or military rescue service, or by a public or private organisation duly authorised to perform services in the location of the Incident) and transported to a medical facility that provides first aid medical treatment on the very same day in which the Slope Rescue Service has performed the intervention.

Limited to the months outside winter season, in case of use of bicycle and mountain bike, the benefit is valid upon submission of a report by an official First Aid service, stating that the accident has happened during the validity of the policy and inside the area where the insurance cover applies.

The warranty operates only for slopes where the ski pass in possession of the Insured is valid for the day or days on which they purchased the policy.

Special exclusions applicable to SECTION A (to integrate art. 10 – Exclusions valid for all policy sections of the Insurance conditions)

In addition to the common exclusions to all warranties, the following are excluded from the insurance coverage:

- a. the consequences or repercussions of a pre-existing medical condition;
- b. facts that can be subject to criminal sanctions based on the law in the Country the Insured is in;
- c. medical costs or other costs regarding surgical treatments not deemed urgent in the opinion of doctors on site and that can be postponed until returning home;
- d. spa, rehabilitation or physiotherapy treatments, costs for glasses, contact lenses, prosthesis of any kind, wheelchairs and similar mobility aids, examinations and routine check-ups, preventive tests or treatments, examinations and control tests in the absence of an injury or an illness included in the cover;
- e. costs of cosmetic or reconstructive surgery and for wellness treatments, vaccination costs, acupuncture sessions, massage therapy, chiropractor or osteopath care;
- f. costs and treatments not prescribed by a qualified medical authority;
- g. medical costs incurred after returning home;
- h. costs for phone calls (except those to the Assistance Platform).

Special conditions applicable to SECTION A

As a condition of the cover provided under this section:

The warranty is limited to the refund of costs actually incurred by the Insured. If the Insured has the right to be refunded by one or more subjects, the Company is required to refund only the difference between the costs actually incurred and the covered ones, for which the Company itself will be held as liable after the reimbursement.

Subrogation or recourse against those liable for the incident

For the warranties set out in this Section, where an indemnity has been paid, the Company is subrogated, up to the limit of that indemnity, in the rights and actions of the Insured against anyone liable for the damage. These provisions are not applied, except in the case of wilful misconduct, in relation to subrogation actions against children, descendants, ascendants or persons who habitually live with the Insured, such as cohabiting persons or work providers under the employ of the Insured (domestic workers, drivers and the like).

SECTION B – MEDICAL RETURN, DRIVER AVAILABLE FOR RETURN TO DOMICILE

Conditions of intervention of the Assistance Platform: in all cases provided by the warranties specified below, only the medical authorities of the Assistance Platform are authorised to decide in relation to the repatriation, the choice of means of transport and the location of hospital admission and, where necessary, they contact the treating doctor intervening in situ and/or the GP of the Insured.

Bookings are made by the Assistance Platform, which is entitled to request from the Insured unused travel documents.

Provision of Services of Assistance Platform: Costs of any nature incurred by the Insured in relation to the warranties provided in accordance with this section of the policy will be paid directly by the Assistance Platform only if approved and coordinated by the Assistance Platform itself, except for costs incurred for reasons of urgency when the Insured is unable to get into contact with the Assistance Platform in good time, even by way of third persons. In that case, the Insured will have the burden to prove the urgency of the costs incurred and the impossibility of getting into contact with the Assistance Platform and the medical costs incurred will be reimbursed.

To use the Assistance services set out in this Section, contact the Assistance Platform at the detail set out below:

+39 039 65546635
alarm@fdholding.it

In all cases it will be necessary, on the first contact with the Assistance Platform, to indicate:

- surname and name of the Insured,
- address,
- contact details for subsequent actions by the Assistance Platform,
- nature and description of the injury.

Exceptional circumstances

The AIG Assistance Platform will not be responsible for delays or impediments in the provision of the services set out in the warranties described in this section A in the case of strikes, riots, civil unrest, reprisals, restrictions to free movement, any act of sabotage or terrorism, civil or foreign war, emission of heat or radiation originating from the disintegration of the nucleus of the atom, radioactivity or other fortuitous events or force majeure.

Nature of the services and warranties

B.1 Medical return of Insured to his/her domicile

As a result of an accident and/or injury to the Insured for which an intervention has been performed by the Slope Rescue Service or – outside the winter season and limited to the use of bike or mountain bike – an Official Report has been issued by an official First Aid Service as indicated on art. A.2, and for which the Insured has benefited from the warranty “Medical costs of first aid” when the Insured is declared fit for travel, in the opinion of the treating doctors in situ approved by the doctors of the Assistance Platform, the Assistance Platform will proceed with the return of the Insured to their domicile. The date and method of return, as well as the most suitable transport, are decided and chosen by the Assistance Platform based upon the aforementioned conditions. The return may be done by first class train, ambulance, airliner or private medical aircraft.

B.2 Driver available for return to domicile

As a result of an accident and/or injury to the Insured for which a first aid intervention on the slopes has been performed and for which the Insured has benefited from the warranty “Medical costs of first aid”, where the Insured has previously reached the ski slopes with their own vehicle, is not in a condition to drive and none of the passengers travelling with him is able to replace him at the wheel for objective reasons, the Assistance Platform – after having been contacted in advance and having ascertained through contact with the treating doctors in situ the impossibility of the Insured to drive the vehicle - makes available a driver to drive the vehicle and any passengers travelling with the Insured to the residence of the Insured via the shortest route, taking responsibility for the organisation and cost of the driver available and his return ticket after the intervention. All other costs related to the return (fuel, tolls, insurance, etc.) are borne in full and exclusively by the Insured.

Special exclusions applicable to SECTION B (to integrate art. 10 – Exclusions valid for all policy sections of the Insurance conditions)

In addition to the common exclusions to all warranties, the following are excluded from the insurance coverage:

- i. the direct organisation, or in any case without prior authorisation of the Operations Centre, of all provided assistance services, except for what is provided;
- j. road costs (tolls, fuel), taxis or customs and the restaurant/hotel costs, except for those provided by the warranty;
- k. in the event of hospitalisation, the cost of a single room, unless it is not indicated for medical orders;
- l. the consequences or repercussions of a pre-existing medical condition;
- m. facts that can be subject to criminal sanctions based on the law in the Country the Insured is in;
- n. nervous or mental disorders;
- o. costs for phone calls (except those directed to the Assistance Platform).

All assistance services are also not due:

- p. in the event the Insured ignores the indications of the Operations Centre, that is:
 - i. the Insured voluntarily discharges himself against the advice of the treating hospital doctors;
 - ii. the Insured or whoever on his behalf voluntarily refuses the sanitary repatriation/return on the date and by the transport means indicated by doctors of the Operations Centre. In this case, the Company will immediately suspend the assistance, only covering the refund of further hospital and surgical costs up to an amount equal to the one of the refused repatriation services.

Diseases or benign lesions that may be treated on site do not give the right to the benefit "Return of the Insured to his/her domicile" described in art.B.1 of this Section.

SECTION C - CIVIL LIABILITY

Subject of the warranty

C.1 The policy keeps indemnified the Insured, within the amount specified in Annex 1 - Table of Warranties, where the Insured is civilly liable for damages involuntary caused to third parties, to be understood as:

- a. physical injuries of Third Parties;
- b. damage or loss of property owned by Third Parties, only as a result of physical injuries of Third Parties as a consequence of a collision between persons in the skiing area to which the ski pass in possession of the Insured allows access, provided that:

- the Slope Rescue Service drafts in good time the report with the dynamics and significant details of the incident or
- limited to the use of bike or mountain bike – an Official Report has been issued by an official First Aid Service as previously indicated on art. A.2

The Company bears the costs incurred to defend the action of the injured party within the limits of a quarter of the insured sum, or, where a sum greater than the insured capital is due to the injured party, in proportion to the respective interest of the Company and the Insured.

The warranties are provided at second risk. The first €500 of each claim, or 10% if greater, is not insured.

Special exclusions applicable to SECTION C (to integrate art. 10 – Exclusions valid for all policy sections of the Insurance conditions)

The insurance cover does not include:

- any liability deriving from physical injuries or from loss or damage to property:
 - o owned by the Insured, a Family Member or a person under the employ of the Insured;
 - o or that the Insured, a Family Member or a person under the employ of the Insured have received, have in custody or under control;
- any injury, loss or damage:
 - o to members of the family, or a person under the employ of the Insured;
 - o having its origin in the professional or business activity of the Insured or occurring in relation to that professional or business activity;
 - o having its origin in a contract signed by the Insured;
 - o occurring during off-piste activities.
- participation in sports competitions of any nature, including training in view of those competitions, except, exclusively, for non-professional amateur competitions without cash prizes.

Special conditions applicable to SECTION C

As conditions for the cover provided based upon this section:

1. the Insured must communicate promptly to AIG any element or circumstance that may justify a compensation claim against it and send any other document relating to the compensation claim and/or the insured circumstances;
2. the Insured must collaborate, providing all information required by AIG to be able to act on behalf of the Insured. The Insured must not negotiate, liquidate, settle out of court, accept or reject any claim for compensation without written authorisation from AIG.
3. Where a damages claim for compensation is made against the Insured, in order for the same to invoke this cover, it must immediately notify this to the Company, which will make available to the Insured, for the management of the dispute, its trusted lawyers which the latter must necessarily use, under penalty of forfeiture by the Insured of the right to be indemnified and to be held harmless by the Company and/or by the broker.

SECTION D – LEGAL PROTECTION

Subject of the warranty

D.1 As a result of an incident or collision between the Insured and other persons who are performing an activity defined by Art. 1 - SUBJECT OF THE INSURANCE above, within the skiing area, for which a slope rescue intervention is performed, or – outside the winter season and limited to the use of bike or mountain bike – an Official Report has been issued by an official First Aid Service as previously indicated on art. A.2, AIG will bear, within the amount indicated in Annex 1 - Table of Warranties, the legal costs and court case costs that are necessary to settle judicial or extrajudicial disputes in which the Insured is involved, provided that the same do not have as their counterparty the Company, the Broker or the Policyholder of the Insurance.

The Company will bear within the limits of the total maximum ceiling of €1,000 the judicial and extrajudicial costs in the civil and criminal venue as indicated below:

1. Costs for the intervention of a lawyer
2. expert costs
3. court costs in the proceedings
4. any costs of the counterparty lawyer, in the case of a settlement authorised by the Company, or the costs of losing in the case of conviction of the Insured

Where, in disagreement with the Insured, the Company believes that the legal action is not likely to be successful or that the costs associated with it would be higher than any sum recoverable following the ruling, the parties may defer to arbitration the decision regarding the opportunity of bringing the action.

Special exclusions applicable to SECTION D (to integrate art. 10 – Exclusions valid for all policy sections of the Insurance conditions)

The insurance cover does not include claims for compensation originating from criminal, wilful or intentional acts of the Insured.

Special conditions applicable to SECTION D

As a condition for the cover provided based upon this section:

1. the Insured undertakes to follow the instructions provided by the Company in the handling of any compensation claim;
2. where the Insured is summoned to court to compensate any damages caused to third parties falling within this policy, the Insured is entitled to choose the lawyer to whom to entrust the judicial protection of his interests provided that the professional is:
 - a) authorised in accordance with applicable regulations
 - b) registered on the circuit of the Court at which the judicial offices with jurisdiction to settle the dispute are based;where possible, the Insured must recover all costs incurred by the Company and pay to the latter the sums recovered.

For the activity of handling the claims under this cover, the Company makes use of the company IGS s.r.l. - Via Ligabue, 2 - 04100 - Latina (LT) e-mail : tutela.legale@igsonline.it

SECTION E – REIMBURSEMENT OF SKI PASS NOT ENJOYED DUE TO INJURY

Warranty valid only for policies of three or more consecutive days

Subject of the warranty

E.1 As a result of an accident and/or injury to the Insured for which the Slope Rescue Service has intervened or – outside the winter season and limited to the use of bike or mountain bike – an Official Report has been issued by an official First Aid Service as indicated on art. A.2, and for which the Insured has benefited from the “Medical costs of first aid” warranty, AIG reimburses on a pro rata basis the ski pass not enjoyed.

Special conditions applicable to SECTION E

As a condition for the cover provided based upon this section, the injury to the Insured must be such as not to allow him to resume the conduct of the activity subject to the insurance, and that impossibility must be certified by a doctor and documented by an instrumental investigation verifiable by a fiduciary doctor of the Company. The Insured will be entitled to the reimbursement of the ski pass not enjoyed, as a result of accident and/or injury, only where the ski pass has not been used for the entire period for which the reimbursement is claimed.

SECTION F – REIMBURSEMENT OF SKI RENTAL MATERIAL NOT ENJOYED DUE TO INJURY

HOW WE USE PERSONAL INFORMATION

AIG Europe S.A. is committed to protecting the privacy of customers, claimants and other business contacts.

“Personal Information” identifies and relates to you or other individuals (e.g. your partner or other members of your family). If you provide Personal Information about another individual, you must (unless we agree otherwise) inform the individual about the content of this notice and our Privacy Policy and obtain their permission (where possible) for sharing of their Personal Information with us.

The types of Personal Information we may collect and why – Depending on our relationship with you, Personal Information collected may include: contact information, financial information and account details, credit reference and scoring information, sensitive information about health or medical conditions (collected with your consent where required by applicable law) as well as other Personal Information provided by you or that we obtain in connection with our relationship with you. Personal Information may be used for the following purposes:

- Insurance administration, e.g. communications, claims processing and payment
- Make assessments and decisions about the provision and terms of insurance and settlement of claims
- Assistance and advice on medical and travel matters
- Management of our business operations and IT infrastructure
- Prevention, detection and investigation of crime, e.g. fraud and money laundering
- Establishment and defence of legal rights
- Legal and regulatory compliance (including compliance with laws and regulations outside your country of residence)
- Monitoring and recording of telephone calls for quality, training and security purposes
- Market research and analysis

To opt-out of any marketing communications that we may send you, contact us by e-mail at: AIGDirect.Queries@aig.com or by writing to: Customer Support Team, The AIG Building 2-8 Altyre Road, Croydon, Surrey, CR9 2LG. If you opt-out we may still send you other important service and administration communications relating to the services.

Sharing of Personal Information – For the above purposes Personal Information may be shared with our group companies and third parties (such as brokers and other insurance distribution parties, insurers and reinsurers, credit reference agencies, healthcare professionals and other service providers). Personal Information will be shared with other third parties (including government authorities) if required by laws or regulations. Personal Information (including details of injuries) may be recorded on claims registers shared with other insurers. We are required to register all third party claims for compensation relating to bodily injury to workers’ compensation boards. We may search these registers to prevent, detect and investigate fraud or to validate your claims history or that of any other person or property likely to be involved in the policy or claim. Personal Information may be shared with prospective purchasers and purchasers, and transferred upon a sale of our company or transfer of business assets.

International transfer - Due to the global nature of our business, Personal Information may be transferred to parties located in other countries (including the United States, China, Mexico, Malaysia, Philippines, Bermuda and other countries which may have a data protection regime which is different to that in your country of residence). When making these transfers, we will take steps to ensure that your Personal Information is adequately protected and transferred in accordance with the requirements of data protection law. Further information about international transfers is set out in our Privacy Policy (see below).

Security of Personal Information – Appropriate technical and physical security measures are used to keep your Personal Information safe and secure. When we provide Personal Information to a third party (including our service providers) or engage a third party to collect Personal Information on our behalf, the third party will be selected carefully and required to use appropriate security measures.

Your rights – You have a number of rights under data protection law in connection with our use of Personal Information. These rights may only apply in certain circumstances and are subject to certain exemptions. These rights may include a right to access Personal Information, a right to correct inaccurate data, a right to erase data or suspend our use of data. These rights may also include a right to transfer your data to another organisation, a right to object to our use of your Personal Information, a right to request that certain automated decisions we make have human involvement, a right to withdraw consent and a right to complain to the data protection regulator. Further information about your rights and how you may exercise them is set out in full in our Privacy Policy (see below).

Privacy Policy - More details about your rights and how we collect, use and disclose your Personal Information can be found by writing to protezionedeidati.it@aig.com
